Holzkirchen/Germany - Stamford, Conn./USA, December 04, 2018 – Once again, SEP is among the top-ranked solutions, announced by Gartner, Inc. in its November 2018 Gartner Peer Insights Customers' Choice for Data Center Backup and Recovery Software. The Gartner Peer Insights Customers' Choice is a list of recognized vendors in their specific market by verified end-user professionals, that takes into consideration both the number of end-user reviews and the overall user ratings. As of the date of this announcement, SEP earned a 4.7 out of 5 stars based on 175 end-user reviews. This is the second consecutive time SEP was named a Gartner Peer Insights Customers' Choice for this market.

SEP's data backup solution is "Made in Germany" and protects a wide range of virtual environments, operating systems, applications and databases. Its universal support for complex system environments sets SEP apart from its competitors. SEP can replace and consolidate multiple backup systems to create a centrally administrable hybrid backup solution. SEP keeps business-critical data available at all times to save customers valuable time, resources and operating costs.

SEP has been developing enterprise data protection solutions since 1992. SEP has a strong partner network utilized for the sale and distribution of its products. Customers in more than 50 countries include top tier universities and market-leaders in retail, healthcare and the financial sector.

"We're very proud of receiving this high recommendation rate by our customers and to be named a November 2018 Gartner Peer Insights Customers' Choice for Data Center Backup and Recovery Software for the second time. We will continue to innovate to meet the needs of our customers and we are grateful for the feedback they shared with us on Gartner Peer Insights," said Georg Moosreiner, CEO and co-founder of SEP AG. "Our entire team works very hard every day to maintain what we believe is the high level of service we deliver to our customers."
